CHICAGO DEMOCRATS NOMINATE SWEITZER

WOMAN VOTE CONTRIBUTES LARGELY TO HARRISON'S DEFEAT

Thompson has Lead of Nearly 2,000 for Republican Nomination—Banman and Schnepp are Nominated for Mayor in Springfield.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—Carter H. Harrison, who is finishing his fifth term as mayor of Chicago, was defeated for the Democratic re-nomination in the primary election today by Robert M. Sweitzer, present clerk of Cook county, by a plurality of more than 75,000.

Although Harrison was a pronounced advocate of woman's suffrage and he was aided in the campaign by his wife, Edith Ogden Harrison, well known locally as a writer, the woman vote contributed largely to his defeat. A count of 12,644 out of 15,660 precincts in the city gave Sweitzer a woman's plurality of 16,829 votes. Sweitzer had a plurality of 45,847 male votes from these precints, having 146,401 votes against Harrison's 83,725.

Republican Fight Close.

The fight for the Republican nomination was so close that it is likely that the official count will be needed to give the result. Harry E. Olson, chief justice of the municipal court, and William Hale Thompson were within three hundred votes of each other when 1,000 precincts had been counted. Thompson was receiving a good majority of the men's Republican votes while Judge Olson who had been helped by Progressive ward workers had an advantage of 5,000 women's votes. This gave him a slight total lead.

More than a score of arrests were made at the polls during the day, workers being locked up for activities near the polling places. A dozen or so fights were reported and police patrols were on the jump all day answering riot calls. Eight year old Agnes Scanlon was shot in the foot when a policeman in the third ward fired two shots into a crowd of political workers who had attacked him.

Politicians tonight discussed the possibility of Harrison running as an independent candidate, this it was said probably would mean the election of the Republican nominee.

Thompson Leads Republicans.

A count of all but four precincts gave Thompson a lead of nearly 2,000 for the Republican nomination.

Harrison, put at rest discussion that he would run an independent by declaring that he was through. The result, he said, would indicate that the voters desired an open town.

Nominate Bauman and Schnepp.

Springfield, Illinois, Feb. 23.—Half of the forty-one precincts in Springfield, in the second primary held under the commission form of government, indicate that Charles T. Bauman and John S. Schnepp, the present mayor, have been nominated for mayor. Eight comissioners are to be nominated. Bauman who leads the ticket, favors municipal ownership of the electric light plant.

Complete figures give Bauman a lead of 1,900 vote over John S. Schnepp, the present mayor, whom he will oppose in the election April 6th.

The eight candidates nominated for commissioners, with four to be elected are:

Willis J. Spaulding, Roy R. Reece, Frank H. Hamilton, Burke Vancil, J. Emil Smith, Charles F. Clapp, Charles H. Edmunds and J. J. Payton.

Bauman, Spaulding, Vancil and Clapp ran on a platform favoring city ownership of the electric light plant.

Name Woman for Commissioner.

Bloomington, Ill., Feb. 23.—The first primary election in Bloomington for candidates for mayor and commissioners under the commission form government was held today and almost ten thousand votes were cast.

Commissioners—E. R. Morgan, R. L. Carlock, John Anderson, A. G. Erickson, Mrs. Guy McCurdy, W. H. Kerrick, George Monroe and L. F. Rittmiller.

Peoria Nominees Unopposed.

Peoria, Feb. 23.—At the primary election here today Mayor Edward N. Woodruff was nominated by the Republicans as candidate for mayor to make the race for a fifth consecutive term. James Shea was nominated for mayor on the Democratic ticket. Neither Woodruff nor Shea was opposed. A light vote was cost only ten per cent of the women voting.

Little interest was shown in the aldermanic race. Lewis, who is a candidate on the Citizen's ticket did not figure in today's contest.

Cast Only Six Votes.

East St. Louis, Ill., Feb. 23.—A total of six votes were cast here today in a municipal primary election, which cost the city $1,800. Five Republicans and one Economy Party votes comprised the election returns.

Mayor Chamberlain was nominated for re-election by a total of two votes. Four other candidates received one vote each.

PROHIBITION AND SUFFRAGE BILLS PASS THE IOWA HOUSE

Tussle Develops Between "Wet" and "Dry" Members of Senate Over the Clarkson Bill.

Des Moines, Iowa, Feb. 23.—The Wilson bill for constitutional prohibition which came from the senate was passed by the house of the Iowa legislature today by a vote of 92 to 14. This bill provides for submission to the people of the question of constitutional prohibition if it is successful in the legislature to convene two years hence.

Another constitutional amendment coming from the senate and providing for equal suffrage was passed by the house by a vote of 84 to 14. This bill has been passed by two successive legislatures and will go to the voters of the state.

A tussle between "wet" and "dry" members of the senate has developed over the Clarkson bill which is in the hands of the house enrollment committee. The "drys" wish to get it back to the upper chamber in time to have it signed by the lieutenant governor before adjournment. The "wets" so far have been successful in holding the bill before the house committee.

The "drys" threaten to hold the legislature in session until the bill is signed.

SHANAHAN TAKES UP COMMITTEE PROBLEM

M'CORMICK IS ASSISTING SPEAKER WITH SOME BUSINESS

Committee is Due to Start Recount of Vote in Thirty-Fourth Senatorial District Today—Several Boxing Bills Are Ready for Legislature.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 23.—Speaker David E. Shanahan arrived in Springfield this afternoon from Chicago and went at once to his room in the state house to take up the problem of house committee assignments. He expects to have some of the more important committees ready to announce when the assemblymen return to the city next week.

Medill McCormick of Chicago also is in the city assisting Speaker Shanahan in arranging some of the matters to be disposed of in the preliminary business of the house.

Members of the special committee named last week by Speaker Shanahan to conduct a recount of ballots in the thirty-fourth senatorial district where the seat of one representative is in contest are due in Springfield tomorrow morning to start the recount. The committeemen are Frederick DeYoung of Harvey, William J. Graham of Aledo, James C. Harvey of Bloomington, Republicans; John I. Burns of Chicago, and Arthur Roe, of Vandalia, Democrats.

The county clerks or their representatives from Coles, Clark and Douglas counties which comprise the thirty-fourth district have been notified to have the ballots in Springfield tomorrow morning.

To Introduce Boxing Bills.

Not less than half a dozen boxing bills will be ready to drop into the hopper as soon as the legislative mill begins to grind. Advocates of boxing appear to look upon the present session as good time to get on the statute books a law legalizing the sport under certain restriction. While Governor Dunne has not committed himself in favor of any man's particular measure he is understood to be willing to let a properly hoppled boxing bill become a law if the assemblymen pass it and supporters of the game do not purpose letting the opportunity slip.

Five bills on the subject already have been prepared or are in course of preparation by the legislative reference bureau.

The provisions in general are for a state boxing commission or commissioner to have supervision of all bouts. The principal point of difference is regarding the question of decisions.

Secretary Bell of the legislative reference bureau received a letter today from Charles J. Harvey, secretary of the New York state athletic commission in which Harvey states:

"We have found that all that boxing needs is control and the four years operation of the law here has demonstrated it to be the case, as matters have gone along very smoothly. The addition to this commission has added to the treasury of the state a sum approximating $130,000."

ARMY BILL PASSES THE SENATE WITHOUT A DISSENTING VOTE

House Aids in Clearing up Legislation by Adopting the Fortifications Measure.

Washington, Feb. 23.—Without a dissenting vote the senate today passed the army appropriation bill carrying approximately $103,000,000 while tht house aided in clearing up legislation for the session nearing a close by passing that $6,000,000 fortifications bill. The only debate on the army bill related to action of the senate committee in striking out of the house bill a provision which would prohibit the use of stop watches and other so-called scientific management methods in governments plants and deny appropriations for payment of bonuses to employes.

Senators Hughes, Martine and others urged restoration of the provisions while Senator Root declaring the committe should be sustained made an appeal for the rewarding of ambition. The committee was sustained.

ALBERT LEA, Minn., Feb. 23.—In a blinding snow storm, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul passenger train No. 23 crashed head-on into a freight train, three miles west of here early tonight, injuring seven persons. Although on a straight track the blizzard made it impossible for the enginemen to see the freight engine until too late to avert a collision.

War News Summarized

The Norwegian Steamer Regin coal laden, the American Carib, with a cargo of cotton aboard, and the British government Collier Branksome Chine have fallen victims of mines or torpedoes.

The Regin went down near Dover, the Carib off the German coast in the North Sea. Branksome Chine was struck in the English Channel off Beachy Head and is reported to be still afloat.

A large steamer is also reported in distress near where the Branksome Chine was struck, but it has not been ascertained what has brought her to grief.

The cross channel Steamer Victoria, bound from Boulogne to Folkestone with nearly 100 passengers, has been attacked by a German submarine and narrowly escaped destruction by a torpedo.

Much interest attaches to the bombardment by the French and British warships of the forts in the Dardanelles, some of which are said to have been badly damaged. Late advices are lacking however, regarding these operations, which have been interrupted by the unfavorable weather.

Reports from the battle fronts are meagre as is usually the case after one side or the other has gained a marked advantage. The German victory in east Prussia is admitted by the Russians who, however, have brought up large reinforcements and artillery.

In the western arena the ordinary give and take engagements at various points along the line apparently cover the extent of the fighting.

Washington, Feb. 23.—Proposals have been made informally by the United States government to both Great Britain and Germany suggesting a basis for an understanding on the subject of foodstuffs for the civilian population of belligerents and submarine warfare against merchant ships.

STATES INCREASE WILL NOT BRING SUFFERING

CHICAGO BOARD HEAD TESTIFIES AT NEW YORK INVESTIGATION

Says Rise in Price of Wheat Will be Balanced by a Decrease in Cost of Potatoes and Other Edibles—Expects Wheat Surplus June 30.

New York, Feb. 23.—The recent increase in the cost of wheat, bread and flour will not cause suffering among the poor, in the opinion of C. H. Canby, president of the Chicago board of trade, who testified today at the investigation of the New York state attorney general into the causes of this increase. The rise in the price of wheat, he said, will be balanced by a decrease in the price of potatoes and other edibles.

The witness also expressed the belief that despitee th heavy exportation of wheat, there will be a surplus at the end of the crop year, June 30th.

Poor Will Economize.

"The poor will not stop eating bread because it is raised in price one cent a loaf," asserted Mr. Canby, "but they will not eat so much of it. They will economize."

Asked if he did not believe the increase in the price of bread would tend to cause more unrest and distress in the nation, the witness replied: "In a country like the United States where millions are spent for chewing gum and five cent cigars, I fail to see how it can be disturbed by a penny rise in the price of foodstuffs."

The witneess charactrizd as "moonshine" and "pure bunk" the impression that any individual or group controls the wheat market or any other commodity market. Such a thing was possible, he said, but it seemed inconceivable to him that such a situation should ever arise. Wheat trading, he said, was essentially competitive and he knew of no combination to control prices. Elimination of speculation in commodity markets would not benefit the producer and consumer, he maintained.

Monopoly Would End Separation.

"Not only will the producer be injured, but the consumer also if, by any fiat of government, speculation is killed," he asserted. "The first result of such a course would be the establishment of a monopoly. A monopoly cannot permit speculation—it fixes the price. You remember what happened in the organization of that great trust, the name of which I shall not mention. After its organization the exchanges at Pittsburgh, Oil City and New York were wiped out and the monopoly had complete sway over the prices."

WHEREABOUTS OF JOHNSON IS NOT DIVULGED BY PROMOTERS

EL PASO, Texas, Feb. 23.—The whereabouts of Jack Johnson was not divulged today by the promoters of the Johnson-Willard fight at Juarez, which has been postponed from March 6th to some indefinite date. It was intimated that after Johnson's disappearance at Havana yesterday he sailed for some Mexican port.

It has been suggested that Johnson may attempt to enter Mexico through Manzanillo, a west coast port reported to be about to fall into Villa's hands. This would give him railroad passage to Juarez without passing through the Carranza lines. This plan would necessitate Johnson's crossing the continent through Guatemala, altogether a trip of a fortnight.

Willard to Quit Training.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 23.—Jess Willard and his manager, Tom Jones had a disagreement today in the lobby of a hotel here and as a result Willard declared he would not continue his training until Jack Johnson appeared at Juarez for the boxing bout for fear of over training.

COURT UPHOLDS LEGISLATIVE WITHDRAWALS OF PUBLIC LANDS

Decision of Supreme Court Will Cause Oil Companies to Loose Claims on Lands Valued at Millions of Dollars.

Washington, Feb. 23.—Long acquiescence by congress in legislative withdrawals of public lands entry was held by the supreme court here today to have had the effect of recognizing the existence of this right in the president. So the court sustained the action of former President Taft in 1909 withdrawing from entry thousands of acres of rich low lands in California and Wyoming for conservation by the government.

Justice Lamar rendered the court's opinion. Justice Day announced a dissenting opinion in whch Justices McKenna and Vandeventer concurred.

As an immediate result of the opinion, oil companies which obtained entries after the Taft withdrawal but before legislation by congress a few months later providing for withdrawal lose their claims on lands valued at millions of dollars.

AWAIT OUTCOME OF CONFERENCES WITH MEXICAN LEADERS

Believe Further Development of Policy Toward Mexico Will be Based on Information Secured by West and Douglas.

Washington, Feb. 23.—Diplomatic representatives of various countries who have inquired as to the course of the United States government in the Mexican situation have been advised informally that the outcome is being awaited of the conference is being awaited of the conferences between Duval West, personal representative of President Wilson, with different leaders and between General Carranza and Charles A. Douglas, a Washington attorney, now at Vera Cru. Douglas, who is a friend of Secretary Bryan, went to Vera Cruz with Eliseo Arrendondo, Washington representative of Carranza, to discuss with the first chief, international aspects of the Mexican situation with a view of securing a better understanding with him of pending questions relating to foreigners and their interests.

Duval West is to confer with Villa and other chiefs and on the information reported through these channels it is believed a further development of the Washington government's policy toward Mexico will be based.

ST. LOUIS MINISTERS WELCOME BILLY SUNDAY.

Through the courtesy of John Wanamaker, copies of the Philadelphia Evening Telegram with accounts of the meetings have been sent each day to every protestant pastor so that the ministers of St. Louis are particularly well informed.

INCLUDE ISLANDS IN WAR ZONE.

Amsterdam, via London, Feb. 24.—(1:25 a. m.)—A semi-official despatch received here from Berlin says that the Okney and Shetland Islands, laying off the northeast coast of Scotland at the head of the North Sea and also Kirwall Harbor in the Okney Islands, must be regarded as lying within the war zone but that the passages on both sides of the Faroe Islands, almost midway between Scotland and Iceland are not endangered.

MINE DESTROYS SECOND AMERICAN STEAMSHIP

THIRD NORWEGIAN SHIP IS TORPEDOED OR SUNK BY MINE

Crews of Both are Believed to Have Escaped—Operations Against the Dardanelles are Delayed—Allies Stay Offensive—Fighting Continues on Virtually the Entire Russian Front.

London, Feb. 23.—(10:15 p. m.)—Another American steamer, the Carib, has been destroyed by a mine off the German coast, while a third Norwegian steamer, the Regin has been torpedoed or destroyed by a mine off Dover. In the case of the Regin all the crew were saved by British dstroyers and, although not stated in the despatches from Berlin, it is believed that the crew of the Carib also escaped.

Thus, neutral states continue to be the greatest sufferers from the mine and submarine warfare. It is considered possible however, that one or two British steamers have suffered a similar fate, one being overdue and another being reported blown up off Rye. As a result of the activity of German submarines the British admiralty has announced that the Irish and North Channels have been restricted for navigation from today.

Delay Bombardment of Dardanelles.

It appears from the official report issued by the admiralty tonight that the continuation of the operations against the Dardanelles has been delayed by unfavorable weather but there is still no news of the effect of Saturday's bombardments which was in progress when the first report was published.

On land the Allies in the west have again stayed their offensive, which had as its object the relieving of the pressure on Russia. The belief in military circles here is that Russia has been able to check the Austro-German offensive operations at either end of the long line and that therefore the necessity no longer existed for the Allies to make their effort before they were fully prepared.

Attempt To Relieve Rheims

There has, however, been some fighting near the coast at Ypres in the Champagne district, where the French are attempting to push the Germans back from Rheims and relieve that city from the bombardment which it has again undergone and in the Woevre and Vosges district. At none of these points has a battle of any dimension been fought, although the operations in Alsace taken as a whole are of considerable fighting is going on virtually the entire Russian front but the reports of the general staffs give little or no information of the progress of the campaign. The Russians, who have been strongly reinforced since their defeat in east Prussia, have reached their prepared positions between the fortresses of the provinces of Kovko, Vilna and Grodno and are offering strong resistance to the Germans, who are greatly hampered by the terrible conditions of the roads.

To the south of the lower Vistula the Russians attacked the Germans on the Rawka river, but according to the German account they were repulsed. They are also active in western Galicia, while in the Carpathians the long drawn out battles continue, without either side gaining any definite advantage. It is reported that the Germans have sent further reinforcements to this region, which is quite likely because for political reasons, the Russians must be kept out of Hungary.

JUDGE DAYTON DENIES THAT HE IS "TEMPERAMENTALLY UNFIT"

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Federal Judge Dayton of West Virginia before the house judiciary sub-committee today denied that he was "temperamentally unfit" for the bench and charges that he had failed to enforce the law and declared that he had no recollection of taking any part in the investigation that was made before the resignation of Judge John B. Jackson, his predecessor. At the conclusion of his cross examination by members of the committe John W. Trainer of the department of justice testified that Judge Dayton, then a member of the house had not volunteered any information concerning Judge Jackson and had not been in close touch with the investigation.

ISSUES WARNING TO OFFICERS.

Washington, Feb. 23.—Secretary Garrison warned United States army officers today not to discuss in public the military situation either in America or abroad. Earlier in the day he had exonerated Captain William Mitchell of the army general staff, whose remarks at a private meeting on the vulnerability of the American seaboard had been published.

A WOMAN WINS.

The result of the primary election in Bloomington yesterday will set the women of Jacksonville to wondering why no woman entered the race for commissionship here. There were more than 10,000 votes cast yesterday and with 49 candidates for commissioner in the field Mrs. Ada McCurdy was one of the eight nominated and came not far behind the "high man."

FAVOR MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

The result in the Springfield election was a victory for Commissioner Spaulding and his associates who have fought such a vigorous fight for municipal ownership. Four of the candidates nominated made the race strictly on a platform of municipal ownership as opposed to interference by the local utility company. The company had taken legal steps to block the purpose of Commissioner Spaulding to unite the water and light plants. Mr. Bauman who ran on the municipal ownership platform had a majority of 1600 votes over Mayor Schnepp. Evidently the people of Springfield believe in the value of their light and water departments and want the city to retain the ownership and to make further developments.

HARRISON'S UNDOING.

When Mayor Carter Harrison of Chicago sometime ago signed a joint manifesto with Gov. Dunne and Senator J. Hamilton Lewis, declaring that Lawrence Stringer was the only proper person for Democrats to support as a senatorial aspirant, he paved the way for his defeat in the Chicago primaries yesterday.

The manifesto was a direct blow at Roger Sullivan who was seeking the senatorial nomination. It may or may not have aided in Sullivan's defeat but be that as it may Roger determined upon revenge. This desire was not at all lessened by the lukewarm support Mayor Harrison gave after the primaries and when at the election Sherman was the winner and the returns proved what Cook had failed to do for Sullivan there were doubtless further vows of vengeance which were fulfilled yesterday. During the campaign Sullivan worked for Sweitzer and in a letter which did not mention the mayor by name, he vigorously attacked the administration. Politicians who had viewed the conflict from down state expected Harrison's defeat but had no thought that he would be buried under a majority of 75,000.

AMERICA'S DUTY.

The following editorial from Illinois State Journal breathes a lofty type of patriotism which should make a strong appeal to American hearts today:

The relentless finger of fate points to the fact that the next brief space of time will be the most critical period in the history of the United States of America. Moreover, should the crisis truly appear, it will become the arbiter of a world's destiny.

Will it be big enough to meet it? Not in its sense of arrogant pride as an individual nation, but as a unit in the great family of nations—in the broader spirit in which Jesus Christ himself suffered crucifixion that man might be saved.

The American nation, contrary to cherished belief, is emotional. It is given to rapid and sudden changes of temperament, restless, nervous, due if you will have it so, to the virility of youth, for as nations go it is but a youngster, but still subject to the passionate and heedless impulses of youth. At this writing, the situation, as it refers to our international relations, is one of real gravity, prolific in its possibilities of evil, one requiring consummate skill and adroit diplomacy on the part of our national administration and forbearance of our statesmen and our people.

Every citizen must check all hasty impulses and be guided by a higher idea.

It is the holy duty of the United States — pre-eminent among the world's powers—apostle of a world's peace—exemplifying the spirit of peace on earth, good will toward men, to stand fast to those principles in the face, and in spite of, any provocation that may be given by a war-maddened country. Nothing should be permitted to provoke it to wrath or a deliberate insult to honor.

The United States is a great nation. It has risen to that greatness through the shedding of the blood of its heroic martyrs of '76 and 1812. It has been purified in the crucible of civil strife.

The courage of its people, their patriotism, cannot be questioned.

It is too great in every way to ever have its motives impugned.

Remaining steadfast to its holy principles, future generations of its own sons and daughters and the countless millions of the progeny of Europe saved to posterity, will forevermore regard the star spangled banner as the symbol of man's humanity to man.

CHANGES NOT ALWAYS NEEDED

Judge George Cooke of the Illinois supreme court, in his Washington banquet address at Illinois college, sounded a timely note of warning in laying emphasis upon the sacredness in which we of the present day should hold the constitution of the United States. The framers of the constitution proceeded to the task with the utmost deliberation and studied the constitutions of the other governments of their day and still others which had perished from the earth, with a carefulness wich it would be hard in these days to follow. As Judge Cooke pointed out, the times were different then and the forefathers, without the distracting influences which prevail today, devoted themselves unreservedly, and we may believe, prayerfully to the great task which was before them. The success which attended their efforts gives ample proof that the great idea they had in mind was that the document they were to draw would be a pattern for all humanity.

Through that long period of study they sought to evolve a code for the protection of human rights, and as we study it today we cannot but marvel at the wonderful vision the framers of the constitution displayed. In these later days there seems to be a growing tendency toward change and we hear much about our outgrowing the constitution and the need there is for revision. Judge Cooke made a wholesome point when he said that no changes should be made in our constitution unless they were made after we had given them the same earnest and dispassionate consideration which resulted in the original making of the provisions that we question now.

Too often as a people we demand a change when all that is needed is the application of some corrective to offset the errors we have committed or the abuses that we have tolerated. Along with the tendency toward change is that other tendency to confuse change with reform. They are by no means identical, and one of the commonest political subterfuges of the day is to accomplish a change in the name of reform, which later develops not to be an advance at all.

The same idea which Judge Cooke asks for those who talk of amending the constitution might be applied with equal force by the people to many so-called reform movements. There is need for progress and advance in the political life of today, but not every law proposed in the name of reform and progress will bring about desired results Some of the measures which are backed equally by scheming politicians and well-meaning reformers, in effect take away the rights of the people which they have acquired through the years, or at least have a tendency to take away such rights.

The primary law which has much merit in it has many weaknesses, and those who heralded it years ago as the panacea for all political wrongs, were either schemers or were deluded in their opinions and beliefs. There are notable instances wherein the primary law has made it possible for men utterly unfit for office to acquire such responsibility. The great multiplicity of candidates has in many instances so divided up the vote that the men chosen have in reality represented only a very small percentage of the constituency they were elected to represent. This is not a defense of the old "soap box" type of convention, but it is meant to point out that there are often "advance" bits of legislation which comes far from accomplishing all the good results that are expected of them. The short ballot, which Judge Cooke also mentioned in his address, is a movement contrary even in its spirit, to the spirit of the primary law, and if it were to become a fact and very few of our officers were elected and the remainder were appointed, certainly it seems that the people would have less and less to do with the real responsibilities of government.

CITY AND COUNTY

Miller Keplinger returned yesterday evening to Chicago to resume his studies in Northwestern university after a brief vacation at his home in Franklin.

Dr. E. W. Hall returned to Hannibal yesterday after a brief visit in Jacksonville. He came here particularly at this time to attend the D. O. K. K. banquet Monday night.

U. W. Wright of Carrollton is in the city on legal business today. Mr. Wright has been practicing in Carrollton since the first of the year and is becoming well established in his profession there.

Miss Fay Rodgers will return this morning from Kansas City after a visit of several days with her aunt and other relatives. H. J. Rowgers and daughter Miss Edith returned to Jacksonville Monday.

R. C. Reynolds has returned from a month's visit at the home of his brother-in-law in Louisiana. Mrs. Reynolds remained for a further visit, and will not return to the city for at least a month or more.

C. L. Hatfield & Co., commission men on South Mauvaisterre street, have recently had an elevator constructed in their place of business and will establish a poultry feeding department in their second story. Scott Carter was the contractor for the improvement and G. L. Riggs is manager of the commission house.

Mrs. Anna C. Still, formerly of this city and now residing in Eureka Springs, Ark., is visiting her brother, William C. Gibbs of Bloomington. She expects later to visit her daughter, Mrs. Lulu Henderson of Alexander. She expects to return to Eureka Springs in about two weeks and Miss Mary McLean of Tremont will go with her and friends wish both a safe and pleasant journey.

U. G. WOODMAN IN JACKSONVILLE

U. G. Woodman came to Jacksonville nine years ago and engaged in business here. During this period he has paid to labor—union labor when obtainable—more than $60,000.00. Paid out in Jacksonville in other expenses and purchases incidental to conducting his business here $65,000.00. This $125,000.00, or about $14,000.00 a year, has gone into the channels of trade in Jacksonville, in which this community as a whole has participated.

He has been progressive, was a pioneer in using in this city combination bread labels, a specific brand of bread, sanitary bread tickets, the first wrapped bread and so on. These "reforms" are now being enjoyed by the people of Jacksonville.

Mr. Woodman's match folder business, his own patent, has added an original enterprise to Jacksonville. His plant is complete and is well equipped to do commercial printing, but out of regard for the other printing concerns in Jacksonville he has not done or solicited any commercial work here.

When U. G. Woodman located in Jacksonville he immediately attached himself to the Business Men's association, now the Chamber of Commerce, and has been an active member since. At various times he has served as a director, vice president and as treasurer. He served as president of the Master Bakers' association and was elected president of the Retail and Wholesale Shippers' association.

He served by appointment, without compensation, on the Nichols park board for two years. His colleagues on the board honored him by electing him secretary and treasurer without bond. As a member of the board Mr. Woodman devoted both time and thought to the development of the park in the interest of the people of Jacksonville.

Mr. Woodman is not a politician. During the wet and dry fight he was in the retail business in Jacksonville and like the majority of the merchants and bankers took no active part in these campaigns. His attitude on this issue has been a fair and honest one. He has felt, and has so expressed himself, that as evenly divided as this community has been on the issue, it was but fair and just that the question be on the ballot until a decisive vote was attained. This vote came two years ago. Mr. Woodman believes absolutely in majority rule and in strict enforcement of the city's laws and ordinances.

Mr. Woodman was in favor of and worked for the adoption of the commission form of government—properly applied he has faith in the ultimate success of this system.

Since coming to this city Mr. Woodman has been identified with practically every movement for the welfare and the common good of Jacksonville. He has been liberal with his time and money and his work is well known in connection with securing the home office of the Clover Leaf Insurance company for Jacksonvile, in the extension of Hardin avenue to Nichols park, in securing a Chautauqua for Jacksonville, the Made in Jacksonville show and other enterprises. He has contributed generously to the Woman's college, Y. M. C. A., Anti-Tuberculosis society, Old Peoples' Home, Associated Charities, Free Kindergarten, Salvation Army and other worthy causes.

His hand has gone in his pocket to help entertain the visiting postmasters, Travelers' Protective association, Retail Merchants' association and other conventions of a similar character.

As a magician he has given freely and willingly of his time and talent for charity and the entertainment of the people of Jacksonville.

U. G. Woodman has never held a county or city office for which he has received compensation. He is a taxpayer here and all his interests are in Jacksonville. Mr. Woodman is vitally interested in the future development of this city and is in sympathy with Jacksonville and its people.

Mr. Woodman comes of Quaker parentage and grew to manhood in Kansas, a pioneer prohibition state. He is a clean, just and fair man with a character worthy of consideration.

U. G. Woodman is a candidate for mayor of Jacksonville and is amply capable of representing Jacksonville at home and abroad. He is honest, conservative and safe. Ask the man or woman that knows him.

His platform will be published later.

HOG FEEDERS

We find after several tests, that 1-3 alfalfa chopped up and mixed with 2-3 shelled corn while corn is hot, after taking it out of our Grain Softener, and letting stand 2 or 3 hours in separate tank with cover over it, makes a good hog feed. We add 1-2 gallon of soda to each 15 bushels corn we cook and this helps to keep hogs healthy.

Cob meal cooked and mixed with alfalfa or clover the same way makes a good feed for milk cows. Silage will also make a good mixture, but chopped shock corn answers nicely, if it is very hot when mixed, with plenty of water in feed.

The Amish people mix their feed at 4 o'clock each morning to feed at sun-up, they put the cookers in their barns on cement floors, and make a flue of double tile, 12 in. and 8 in. with cement between them, to pass through loft. This makes a good room in the barn to mend harness, etc.

Do not feed shelled corn alone to anything. It is too rich when cooked in my cookers, too much digestible protein and oil in it. To anyone who feeds cattle we will ship one on 30 days trial, so it will not cost you a cent to test it and all cattle feeders will find it saves them 1-2 their feed, and hold the gain on hogs commonly obtained with the syrup and oil drawn off the corn made into a slop.

CHAS. WOOD, R. F. D. No.6

P. S.—This mixture for cattle makes the best horse feed I ever saw fed. The Dutch feed it to all their horses. Try letting it steep in boiling hot water on back of your cook stove for one team but do not let it get hot enough so you can smell it cooking, and it will then lack almost 25 per cent of being the same as my feed.

CITIZENS DISCUSS BOULEVARD LIGHTS

SYSTEM TO LIGHT SQUARE AND ADJACENT STREETS.

Interesting Addresses Given on Subject and $400.00 Raised by Subscription—Chamber of Commerce Backs Movement.

SALIENT POINTS.

Lights proposed, three per post, one upright and two down. The upright lamp to burn all night, the others till midnight.

Cost to property owners, a dollar a front foot.

Cost to install, $1.15 a foot.

Intersections and the 15 cents a foot to be paid for by a popular subscription now being taken and to be completed Saturday night.

Lights sixty feet apart on the square and a little more on the side streets.

System to extend around the square, north on North Main to North street, east on East State to East street, south on South Main to College avenue, west on West Main shrdl ushrdlu schmfw West State street to West street.

The current for lighting supplied free by the city.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of business and representative men was held at the court house Tuesday evening to consider the matter of boulevard lights or a white way for the square and two blocks adjacent. The matter is largely in the hands of the chamber of commerce, while business men, members of the city council and enterprising citizens are lending their aid working faithfully for the object.

The meeting was called to order by President Reeve of the Chamber of Commerce and in opening the gentleman said the matter was one of prime importance. It would be an ornament and great benefit to the city; it would be well to have the wires under ground and would add materially to the beauty and attractiveness of the place. He said Mr. Weber, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, would explain the situation more fully.

Secretary Weber Speaks.

Mr. Weber told of a city which had no boulevard lights and looked so gloomy and unattractive, but when some were installed that part of the city at once was transformed. He mentioned a number of cities in California which had installed these lights and were delighted with them. He said Commissioner Brennan had done all in his power to further the project and it would be a pity to put in lights on a part of the square or business portion and not in all.

Commissioner Brennan.

He then called on Commissioner Brennan to speak. He said this was an important matter. Last fall there was a movement to get boulevard lights from the square to the Alton railroad on East State street and Commissioners Newman and Knollenberg were a committee to work it up and have charge of the matter but several property owners were unwilling to go into the enterprise and it was dropped.

He had brought the circuit near the square and the property owners, under the present proposition, put in the wires and lights and the city would supply the current for lighting. The plan was to have posts with one 100 watt light on top and two below of 60 watts each. The top one is to burn all night and the lower ones till midnight.

Stereoptican Slides.

Mr. Reid, photographer, had prepared a number of stereopticon slides for the evening. They were very well made and consisted of a variety of subjects, several landscape scenes adjacent to Jacksonville; several scenes on and about the square; some showing the effect of boulevard lights both in this city and other places.

Secretry Weber read a number of letters from various cities stating how well pleased tthey were with the system of lighting which they termed a white way. Letters are read from cities in Nebraska and other places and all told the same story.

W. D. O'Kell Speaks.

The secretary then called on W. D. O'Kell, representing the King Foundary Co., manufacturers of King White Way posts, St. Joseph, Missouri. He mentioned the cost and said the price here as extremely low. He had put in posts in many other places and the result was always satisfactory. Some property owners paid from three to five dollars a month for the lights per post.

Careful estimates had placed the cost of posts at $62.35 each which was very low. In most other places they had cost much more. This this would mean $1.15 a foot to property owners which was small in comparison with the benefits accrueing.

R. C. Lash.

The secretary next called on R. C. Lash, representing the Safety Wire & Cable Co., of New York, with headquarters in Chicago. The gentleman had with him a sample made by the company and sold very generally. He explained its mechanism and told how it would be laid and used. In answer to a question by Bernard Gause he said the cable had had no real test regarding durability, but thought it would last 25 years. Water had no effect on it and in general it was well and carefully made. In 600 places the company had sold more than 22,000,000 feet of the cable

Location of Lights.

(frwith etaoin shrdlu cmfwyp cmf

So far the plan had only been to have the lights about the square. The lights were to be three to a post, one up with 100 watts and two down with 60 watts each, the upper to burn all night and the lower till midnight. They are to be 60 feet apart on the square and a little more on the side streets. They are to extend north to North strst, east to East street, south to College avenue and wes to West street, east to East street, souh to College avenut and west to Wst street.

Urges Co-operation.

Mr. Weber said the chamber of commerce in general and himself in particular would work hard to accomplish the end in view. He said he was very anxious to get the whole sum raised by Saturday night and asked all who would join in and boost the project to stand and nearly all stood. Again he spoke in enthusiastic terms of the project and asked all who would boost the project to stand and almost all in the room arose.

During the evening Prof. S. DeLucas, an Italian gentleman, enlivened the moments with fine playing on his harp and he was greeted with applause and a collection was taken for him and the janitor. The subscription paper was offered and over $400 secured on the spot.

TWO WILLS FILED WITH COUNTY CCERK FOR PROBATE

Mrs. Hannah Dolan Left Property to Sister in Ireland—Devore Estate Will be Divided Among Children.

The will of the late Mrs. Hannah Reardon Dolan has been filed for probate in the offce of County Clerk Boruff. This document is dated Feb. 9, 1913, and the signature attested by Joseph A. Brown and John Noonon. John H. O'Donnell in the first provision of the will is appointed executor and is to serve without bond. The payment of debts and funeral expenses is provided for and the deceased bequeaths all her personal and household effects to Kate Valentine Moore of Winchester. All the rest of the estate is to become the property of Margaret Reardon Buckley, a sister of the deceased now residing in Ireland.

William Devore's Will.

The will of William Devore has been made a matter of record. The original document was drawn May 22, 1911, witnessed by George F. Larue and L. O. Vaught, and a subsequent codicil was made June 7, 1913, witnessed by L. O. Vaught and Julian P. Lippincott, and a second codicil with the same witnesses, was drawn Nov. 21, 1913. The executors of the will are John M. and Fannie Devore, children of the deceased.

The will directs that all of the real estate shall be sold within three years after the death of the testator, and converted into cash, the sale to be either public or private, and as the executors may see fit. The proceeds of the sale shall be divided equally among the eight children, any advancements made during the lifetime of the deceased to be taken into account in making the distribution.

Six of the shares shall be distributed as follows: to Clara Belle Devore, John M. Devore, Fannie Devore, Harvey Lee Devore, Edward E. Devore and Bessie L. Devore; the remaining two shares shall be held for the following purposes: one for Mattie J. Smith, the income from which shall be paid to her during her natural life and upon her death the same shall be turned over to her children; the other share shall be held for Marion Albert Devore, the income from which shall be paid to him during his lifetime and at his death the same shall become the property of his children. The executors are empowered, if it be the wish of Mattie J. Smith or Marion Albert Devore to invest the share of either or both of them in a home. It was the desire of the testator to treat all children exactly alike and each one is to be charged with any notes given or amounts advanced to them during his life. The original will provided that all the personal property and one-third of the real estate should descend to Mrs. Devore, but subsequent to her death provision was made for the distribution of the entire property among the children.

TELLS ABOUT THE ACTIVE RECRUITING WORK IN ENGLAND

Dr. Henry Fairbank Was Recent Visitor in London—Enlistment Rules Not Strictly Enforced—Invitations to Recruits are Alluring.

The following extracts from a letter written by Dr. Henry Fairbank to a number of relatives in this city give a somewhat intimate light upon war conditions and refers to other matters of interest as well. Dr. Fairbank is a cousin of S. A. Fairbank of this city, and so related to all persons of the Fairbank name in Morgan county. He visited Jacksonville last summer and only a few months since started on his return to India, to re-engage in missionary work.

"Llandudno, Wales, 7th Feb. 1915.

"You will wonder at the address at the top of this letter. We found Mr. and Mrs. Higginbotham of Allahabad, India, were going to come here for a short stay, as his mother lives here. He described the place in glowing colors, and as it is not far from Liverpool we decided to come for over Sunday. Llandudno is on the north coast of Wales. The railway from Holyhead to London, through Chester, goes near here. It is a very popular watering-place in the summer. Baedeker says that it has an ordinary population of 10,000 and a summer population of 50,000. Every house almost is a boarding house. Just now there are 8,000 soldiers quartered here, raw recruits undergoing training. We were to have gone to stay with Mr. Higginbotham's sister, as she ordinarily at this time of the year has plenty of room, but this winter she has her house full of soldiers. They are everywhere on the street, and last night, as we were walking through the main street of the place it was almost disagreeable to meet soldiers at every turn, not that they were rude, except in rare instances, but it seemed so out of the way to be in the midst of them. Today, in both churches, where we went, the soldiers formed the majority of the audience. Most of them are real young men. There are six or seven in this place, and I had a little talk with one of them. I asked him about two that had been talking with him, and said they could not be over 19 anyway. He replied that one was 17 and the other 18. I asked him how they got past the recruiting sergeant, and he said no questions were asked; the man gives his age, and the officer puts him down without a word. The man with whom I talked must have been over 25, and he pointed soon to a picture on the mantel place of a woman and two children, "That is my wife and kiddies," he said. He was a nice fellow and realized what he was going to. The limit of age on the billboards is put at 19 and 38. But this fellow told of a man, who had gone to the front, who was 56 years old, who had four sons at the front now. Speaking of bill-boards they have the most interesting notices up everywhere, inviting young men to recruit. One of the best was at Chester:

Grand Tour.
The Allies are arranging a trip for sportsmen, aged 19 to 38
TO BERLIN
All hotel expenses and railway fares paid.
Good shooting and hunting
Rifles and ammunition supplied free.
Also cheap trips up the Rhone,
Apply at once, to the Recruiting officer, Chester Castle, or any recruiting office.
If you cannot join the army, try and get a recruit.'

That is very well put. It is a sample of a number of most interesting notices. The street cars have these notices as well as the regular places alongside of the sidewalks. We got to Liverpool in the early morning yesterday, but we did not get off the steamer till after ten o'clock. After we got into the dock, and on shore, we heard that a German submarine had been in the Irish Sea, only 18 miles from Liverpool, and had torpedoed some small boats there. We do not know what dangers we escaped, but were most thankful to get on shore.

"Yesterday's newspapers were full of the German notice that after Feb. 18, they would attack the merchant ships of Great Britain with submarines, and that they could not be responsible for the vessels of neutral nations. The English papers had strong articles themselves, and quoted very strong articles from New York papers. That really seemed a strange measure to plan, and seems to me to show that the Germans are getting desperate at the success of the English blockade of Germany and at the success of the English marine in keeping up its operation. But they will still further forfeit the respect of the civilized world, if they go into anything like that. The detention of ships and their examination as carried on by the English, has been vexatious enough. If the Germans should torpedo an American merchant ship, even by mistake, they ought to be reminded in a most forcible way that such things are not allowed.

"At Liverpool we had a little time with some ammunition we brought with us, the cartridges left over from Enfield. We declared them, and the customs officer said we must get a permit for them from the war office in London, before they could be released. The orders were very strict, and not even 35 cartridges of a pattern not ordinarily used in England could be released without a permit. Nothing else caused any trouble, and about 11:30 we were at the Lime St. station of the London and Northwestern Ry.

"London, 12th Feb. 1915. Here we are in London, on Lincoln's birthday, and we have just been down town to see Cook and the P. & O. Co., and on the way back stopped at the Cathedral, St. Paul's, and then at a bookstore and bought some books, and are now waiting for lunch. I wrote from Llandudno. We left there on Tuesday and got to Leamington Spa a little after 1 o'clock. There was a very friendly English lady in with us as far as Chester, who talked freely about the war, and there was another very friendly lady from Chester to Birmingham, who has a son or two in the army and one in the navy, and who has had a son-in-law killed already. Her son was on patrol duty in the North Sea, and was relieved by the three ships that were torpedoed, the Aboukir, Cressy and Hawke, (I think the name of the last was Hawke). This young fellow went back for a rest with his ship, and the others went out and were sunk. That afternoon at Leamington we went to Stratford-on-Avon, to see the house of Shakespeare. It is a beautiful country all around there, and the fields are as green today in mid-wniter as in the spring with us. I will not try to describe the places of interest in Stratford, except to say that it was thoroughly inspiring to walk on the floor that Shakespeare walked on and see the room where he was born. The house that he bought later and where he lived the last 12 years of his life, New Place, is nearer the center of the town, and is also most interesting. It was also interesting to see a fountain in the middle of the town, given by George W. Childs of Philadelphia. The English and the Americans are both heirs of Shakespeare.

"I do not remember whether I told you of the change in the steamer. Instead of the India we have the Nellore, a smaller boat, though a newer one, built only in 1912. But our cabin is the one right over the screw at the back. The only two-berth cabins in the boat are back there. Perhaps we can change later, though it is doubtful. We also went to get our passports visaed at the American consulate on New Broad street. A young man by the name of Ripley Wilson wrote on it 'good' with his signature. He is one of the vice-consuls. We find that we as aliens, cannot embark with the rest of the people, but are to go on a tender lower down the river. No aliens are allowed in the Royal Albert dock. Of course the papers have been full of the Lusitania flying the American flag for a day before coming into Liverpool. Everyone remarked on it as they saw it on the boat, but no one seemed to know the reason. The admiralty had told them to do it. I am afraid the war is not yet ended. But goodby for now. We sail tomorrow afternoon."

For Commissioner

[X] JOS. F. BRENNAN

While serving the city as commissioner by appointment he has devoted his time unreservedly to the duties of management of the light and water departments. With his associates in the council he has worked for the development of the two departments. If you think the streets of Jacksonville are better lighted now and the water service improved by comparison with conditions a few years ago, remember that J. F. Brennan was a large factor in bringing these conditions to pass. This candidate believes in the further development of these departments and that they form the city's most valuable assets.

Men Pay Homage to Mother's Friend

"I am not surprised to observe the number of men who come into the store to purchase 'Mother's Friend,'" remarked a leading druggist.

The expectant mother if she hasn't heard of this splendid embrocation is probably not reading the papers to much extent. And if she does it is a happy thought to send hubby to the drug store. "Mother's Friend" is applied externally over the abdominal muscles.

It is a gentle, soothing lubricant, penetrates to the fine network of nerves beneath the skin and has a marked tendency to relieve the muscular strain to which these broad, flat abdominal muscles are subjected. The cords, tendons and ligaments are thus permitted to stretch without the corresponding surface strain so often involved during the period of expectation. This in part accounts for the entire absence, in many cases reported, of nausea, morning sickness and other distresses. And particularly to young mothers is this remedial application of inestimable value since in thus keeping the muscles firm but pliant it enables them to go through the ordeal without laceration of the epidermis so often the case when this gentle form of lubrication is neglected.

"Mother's Friend" is highly recommended by a host of women. Write Bradfield Regulator Co., 508 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and we will send you a valuable little book to expectant mothers.

The effect of this splendid external application is an expression of the thousands of women who have successfully used it and recommended it through two generations.

A CLEVER TRICK.

A woman stepped into a drug store in this city and asked for a bottle of morphine which cost about $1.25. The article was produced and wrapped up when, looking a bit confused, she said she had her money in her stocking and would step into the back part of the store and get it. In a few moments she returned and said she had mislaid her money somehow and would go home and get it and call again and departed leaving the bottle on the counter.

As she failed to return the merchant proceeded to unwrap the bottle when to his astonishment he found, not the one he had sold, but an empty one the size of his own and it is needless to add that the pretended purchaser failed to show up.

Another trick worked in cities is clever. A woman steps into a drug store and asks confusedly for two or three pins with which to adjust her clothes and permission to step back and attend the matter. Of course her requests are granted and when the merchant goes back into his dispensary after her departure he finds several bottles of much value missing.

A few days ago a stranger stepped into a drug store in this city with an empty bottle which had once contained medicine sold at two dollars. On the label pasted on the bottle was the name of the medicine, the troubles for which it was intended and a guarantee of money refunded if it failed.

The stranger said he had bought the medicine of a young clerk in that store not very long before and as it had utterly failed to accomplish its purpose he wanted his money. The merchant asked him to describe the clerk who sold the medicine but the stranger said all he could remember was that the salesman was young, say about 25. He was very sure of ihs statement, that the salesman was about 25 and had sold the medicine on a guarantee which failed and he wanted his money back according to the guarantee.

After considerable cross questioning in which the man seemed more and more confused the merchant told him there were two facts in the way of the claim. In the first place no young salesman had been employed in that store for nine months past. In the second place the merchant always placed on each bottle sold a stamp which would identify it and him and that was lacking and after evincing much confusion the stranger said possibly he might have bought the bottle at some other store here but that was out of the question for the merchant had the sole right for the sale of the medicine in Jacksonville.

The man had undoubtedly picked up the bottle in some other town and brought it along with him thinking he would work a Jacksonville merchant for a refund.

GROWING INTEREST IN GRACE CHURCH REVIVAL

Pastor Preaches Forceful Sermon on "The Unsaved Man's Indictment of the Modern Church."

Tuesday night's meeting at Grace church was a great gain in attendance and interest. Mr. William Bray presided at the pipe organ and the singing was inspiring. The subject of the sermon was "The Unsaved Man's Indictment of the Modern Church." The text was from Psalms 142—4.

The pastor said in part: "Where would the unsaved man expect to find people who had an interest in his spiritual welfare? He would not find it out in the world; not in the world of trade. There men are rated by their property. Go and join a circle of financiers and listen as they talk of business and of men and see whether you hear anything about the souls of men; go into the world of society and as you mingle among the social leaders listen and see if you hear from them any concern of the soul's welfare. Then if th church does not show care for the souls of men what will become of them? If you were an unsaved man what proof would you ask of those who professed to have an interest in your spiritual welfare Surely you would expect them to speak to you once in a while about things of spiritual interest.

How many are in the business of talking to men and women who are not Christians about these vital things? It is surely one of the easiest things and the most natural things to speak of the things in which we are really interested. That is true in all of our secular and domestic affairs. The fact that we so seldom talk to people about their spiritual welfare naturally leads them to think that we do not care for them.

The church must face about and show to men of the world that we are deeply concerned for their salvation. It is not an excuse that we feel unworthy. There is grace enough to make us worthy. Get right with God then you can go anywhere He wants you to go. May it not be true any more that those with whom we are associated can say, "No man cared for my soul" because he never spoke to me. A large number declared their intention to speak to unsaved people tomorrow.

Dr. Ruple will preach tonight. Mrs. C. A. R. Stone will sing. The cottage prayer-meeting held Tuesday was well attended and the reports were unanimous in the deep interest of these meetings. For today cottage prayer-meetings will be held today at the following places:

Mrs. Issac Moxon, West College avenue; Mrs. Amos Wright, 706 N. Main street; J. G. Fox, Caldwell street; Mrs. Charles Hopper, 301 N. Prairie. The people in the vicinity of these homes are cordially invited.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Chicago, Ill.—There is one woman in Chicago who did not permit the defeat of women candidates at last fall's election to prevent her from seeking nomination at the coming primaries. She is Miss Barbara Schmidt, a Republican, who aspires to become an alderwoman. She has four opponents on for the primaries which will be held on February 23.

Los Angeles, Calif.—Miss May Allison of Camina has been appointed "manager of lazy husbands" by the Los Angeles county supervisors. She is handling the wages of the chain-gang prisoners so that their wives will get it, and she looks after husbands who are out on probation for failing to support their families.

Louisville, Ky.—Miss Gladys Adams, formerly a Louisville belle, has sailed for Liverpool to become an army nurse. She will aid her aunt, Lady Ross, who was Patti Ellison of Kentucky, and who has been nursing at the hospital of the Duchess of Sutherland at Dunkirk.

Corvallis, Ore.—The women of Oregon who heard Mrs. Kedzie-Jones of Wisconsin declare at the recent conference on home-making here, that any woman can dress on forty dollars a year, say it can't be done. Mrs. Kedzie-Jones insists that many women are already dressing neatly on that amount in Wisconsin.

Topeka, Kas.—Kansas women under 45 years of age who wear earrings or treat their faces with cosmetics "for the purpose of creating a false impression" will be guilty of misdeameanors, if a bill now before the state legislature becomes a law. Face powders, perfume, false hair and bleaches are among the articles enumerated in the list which women are forbidden to use.

SNOW STORM DEMORALIZES BOTH WIRE AND RAIL COMMUNICATION

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 23.—Despite the efforts of hundreds of linemen and extra crews in railroads, both wire and rail communication in Kansas, Oklahoma and western Missouri remained demoralized tonight as a result of a heavy fall of wet snow accompanied by a high wind which swept over the section yesterday and last night. Trains into Kansas City today and tonight all were late, some of them being from eight to ten hours behind their schedules. A number of points were cut off entirely from communication. Street car traffic here was badly crippled.

Taylor Henderson has returned from a visit to his farm near Literberry.

EUROPEAN WAR NOTES

London, Feb. 23.—(10 p. m.)—The British admiralty announces that the Irish Channel and the North Channel waters lying between England and Scotland and Ireland have been restricted for navigation from today.

The southern entrance to the Irish Chanel, known as St. George's Channel, is between Carnsore Point on the Irish Coast and St. David's Head on the opposite coast of Wales. Certain areas of this channel have been closed to mercantile navigation by the admiralty's orders, which also require that all traffic wishing to proceed through the North Channel must pass to the southward of Rathlin Island between sunrise and sunset. No ship will be allowed within four miles of Rathlin Island between sunset and sunrise.

London, Feb. 23.—(7:40 p. m.)—The British foreign office has directed a letter to Herbert C. Hoover, chairman of the American Belgium relief committee declining to give a direct subsidy to the commission for relief in Belgium. The foreign office explains it has taken this course because Germany has refused to put a stop to cash requisitions in Belgium.

London, Feb. 23.—(10:10 p. m.)—An official statement issued tonight says:

"Unfavorable weather, with low visibility and a strong southwesterly gale, has interrupted operations at the Dardanelles. The outer forts were seriously damaged by the bombardment of Feb. 19th."

Paris, Feb. 23.—(2:15 p. m.)—The Balkan News Agency has received a dispatch from Athens dated Monday, Feb. 22nd, saying that the allied fleet, in bombarding the Dardanelles, threw 2,000 heavy projectiles into the Turkish forts Sunday. The Ottoman batteries replied feebly without hitting any of the allied airships. The allies continued their fire Monday but with diminished intensity.

Berlin, via London, Feb. 23.—(11:15 p. m.)—The first day's trial of bread cards which every woman was required to have in order to receive her supply resulted in some misunderstanding and friction, but the system, in general worked well, although there were considerable delays at the bakeries. The greatest inconveniences were experienced at the hotels as many guests forgot to bring bread cards and for that reason were allowed no bread. The innovation also greatly crippled the numerous automatic restaurants.

London, Feb. 23.—(7:50 p. m.)—An official announcement given out by the bureau of information says that a riot at Singapore in the fifth light infantry over promotions has been quelled. The loss of life in the Piegs was "somewhat serious."

London, Feb. 23.—(5:35 p. m.)—The plan for a union of the financial and military resources of the entente powers, arranged the early part of this month in Paris, was approved in the house of commons this afternoon. During the course of the debate David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer announced that there would be another meeting of the financiers ministers of the allied powers, but this time in London.

AMERICAN STEAMER CARIB GOES TO BOTTOM AFTER STRIKING MINE

BERLIN, Feb. 23.—via London, (7:45 p. m.)—The American Steamer Carib has gone to the bottom off the German coast in the North Sea as a result of running on a mine.

At the time of the disaster to the Carib the vessel was not using the route laid down in the German marine instructions.

Carried Cargo of Cotton.

New York, Feb. 23.—The Carib was formerly owned by the Clyde Line and was recently sold by them to Walker, Armstrong & Co., of Savannah, Ga. She was of 2,280 tons burden and left Charleston January 27th, for Bremen with a cargo of cotton. She had a capacity of 4,600 bales.

Her crew of thirty men, commanded by Captain E. L. Cole, which manned the vessel at the time she was sold, was retained by the new owners, it was said at the Clyde Line offices.

The Carib was built in 1882 at Port Glasgow, Scotland.

No More Headache, Bad Colds, Sour Stomach and Constipation.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Are you keeping your liver, stomach and bowels clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passage way every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

No odds how sick, headachy, bilious and constipated you feel, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a gentle cleansing, too.—Advertisement.

FIGHTER AND FARMER

The warrier in armor is slaying fellow men, the while the peaceful farmer goes forth to plow again. All through the day the former is wasting shot and shell, and making Europe warmer than the gates of Hannibal, Mo. And all day long the latter is wrestling with the soil, and makes the welkin clatter with sounds of useful toil. The farmer cleans his horses, and gathers luscious eggs, the soldier's making corses, and wounding people's legs. The farmer fills his mangers with good and wholesome hay, the soldier butchers strangers for thirteen cents a day. The farmer "sets" his biddy, and leads a useful life, the soldier leaves a widdy where was a happy wife. The farmer props the nation and builds the smiling town, the soldier earns his ration by burning buildings down. The man who lives on danger, and leaves a trail of woe, looks cheap beside the granger, whose weapon is the hoe. The soldier with his sabre should be ashamed to meet the peaceful men who labor to raise the corn and wheat.

Sprains, Bruises Stiff Muscles

Sloan's Liniment will save hours of suffering. For bruise or sprain it gives instant relief. It arrests inflammation and thus prevents more serious troubles developing. No need to rub it in—it acts at once, instantly relieving the pain, however severe it may be.

Here's Proof

Charles Johnson, P. O. Box 105, Lawton's Station, N. Y., writes: "I sprained my ankle and dislocated my left hip by falling out of a third story window six months ago. I went on crutches for four months, then I started to use some of your Liniment, according to your directions, and I must say that it is helping me wonderfully. I threw my crutches away. Only used two bottles of your Liniment and now I am walking quite well with one cane. I never will be without Sloan's Liniment."

Retail Druggists of Jacksonville Receive A "Tar Heel" Remedy

A Vapor Treatment in the Form of a Salve—Relieves Colds in Fifteen Minutes—Druggists Will Give Away 25 Cent Package Free.

The local druggists will soon receive from North Carolina, the "Tar Heel" State, a remedy for all cold troubles that is entirely different from the usual run of cough syrups and cold tablets.

It is in the form of a salve that is vaporized by the heat of the body when applied to the throat and chest. These antiseptic vapors are inhaled with each breath and combined with the absorption of the preparation through the skin, give almost immediate relief in even the worst cases of croup and relieve head and chest colds overnight.

But the fact of most interest to mothers about this new treatment is that it is external and can thus be used with perfect safety on the youngest member of the family.

In case of incipient pneumonia or severe colds first apply hot wet towels to open the pores of the skin, then rub the salve in well and cover with a warm flannel cloth. Leave the covers loose around the neck so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. The next morning you hardly realize you had a cold, as the head is clear, phlegm loosened and soreness gone from the lungs.

In advanced cases of pneumonia the use of this preparation in connection with the regular physician's treatment will greatly aid the patient's chances of recovery. Combined with the absorption of the treatment through the skin, the medicated vapors inhaled loosen the wreckage in the lungs and render the breathing less difficult. This takes part of the work from the overtaxed heart and thus lowers the fever.

These seem strong claims, but the wholesale houses of Illinois, Indiana and Missouri who have investigated the results of this treatment in the south, are so convinced of its merit that they have authorized the retail druggists to sell it on 30 days' trial and to refund the price to any user who is not delighted with the results.

In addition the druggists are arranging to give away a limited number of 25-cent packages free to their regular customers. Present the coupon below and if your dealer has not yet received his shipment he will reserve you a package.

COUPON NO 4.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

FRESH SELLING OF STOCKS BRINGS SOME NEW LOW PRICES

Further Unfavorable Foreign Developments Provokes Selling of Securities, Which Begins at the Outset.

New York, Feb. 23.—Professional selling, prompted mainly by further unfavorable foreign developments, provoked fresh selling of securities on the resumption of operations today. There was a comparatively large accumulation of orders over the double holiday, no inconsiderable part of which emanated from out of town sources, with an admixture of European offerings. This latter phase of the situation was most noticeable in the bond department, where numerous sales for future delivery at concessions were effected. The overhanging fear of international complications was plainly reflected in the several markets for exchange, most of which were again demoralized and in favor of this country. Remittances to London did not decline to last week's low point, but exchange on Paris, Berlin, Rome and Geneva were quoted at unprecedented figures.

The selling in this market began at the outset and was maintained, except for irregular periods of extreme dullness, for the greater part of the session. Many of the principal shares made their lowest prices for the current movement and a number of new minimums were made.

Baltimore and Ohio, common and preferred, Seaboard Air Line, preferred; New Haven and Chesapeake and Ohio were among the stocks to fall to latest established quotations.

Most of the specialists, including the petroleums, motors and a score of dormant issues fell from 1 to over 5 points. United States steel was again the steadiest of the speculative favorites despite the large overturn. Anthracite shares were weakest of the high prices railers, with a revival of rumors affecting dividend stability.

SENSATIONAL BREAKS IN WHEAT BEGIN AT OUTSET OF SESSION

Situation Becomes Unmistakably Worse as Session Nears a Finish —Extreme Losses Amount to 8 Cents a Bushel.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—Wheat plunged heavily downward today, extreme losses amounting to 8c a bushel. Anxiety as to the chances of the Dardanelles being opened and in regard to suggestions that the United States would possibly yet resort to an embargo covering both ammunition and food were largely responsible. The market closed much flushed 5⅝ to 7⅝c lower as compared with Saturday night. Other declines were corn 2⅛@2¼ to 2⅜c; oats 1¼@1⅜ to 2c and provisions 15c to 70c.

Sensational breaks in the price of wheat began right at the outset and became unmistakably worse as the session neared a finish.

The first smash was influenced by a sharp drop in quotations at Liverpool and by news that Constantinople was to be attacked from the north as well as being endangered from the south through the onslaught against the forts both sides of the Dardanelles. Nervousness of holders of wheat were increaed after word came that another neutral ship had been blown up in the war zone and was further augmented by dispatches from the east tending to show that notwithstanding Washington hopes to the contrary the question of an embargo remained still ominous.

General attempts to liquidate despite more and more evident lack of support rendered the pressure on the wheat market especialy severe in the last hour. Export sales had been disappointing in volume and no reliance apparently was placed in assurances that the amount of Russian wheat readily available for shipment through the Dardanelles would be small. The most pessimistic view was taken that the trade faced a prospect of the recent almost unlimited European demand being perhaps suddenly reduced to an unknown extent.

Corn suffered from the same reasons as wheat. Besides there was a big enlargement of the visible supply of corn. Export sales made oats relatively firm. It was said 1,100,000 bushels of oats were brought here for the seaboard.

AFTER SUFFERING TWO LONG YEARS

Mrs. Aselin Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Minneapolis, Minn.—"After my little one was born I was sick with pains in my sides which the doctors said were caused by inflammation. I suffered a great deal every month and grew very thin. I was under the doctor's care for two long years without any benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try it we got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking the third bottle of the Compound I was able to do my housework and today I am strong and healthy again. I will answer letters if anyone wishes to know about my case."—Mrs. JOSEPH ASELIN, 606 Fourth Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy we know for woman's ills. If you need such a medicine why don't you try it?

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

REASONS FOR TEACHERS PENSION LAW EXPLAINED

Proposed Legislation Discussed Before Large Company of McLean County Teachers—Prof. Felmley Sees Benefits for Both Teachers and the Public.

The Bloomington Bulletin in a recent issue tells of a recent meeting of McLean county teachers held to discuss the teachers' pension law. There was a good attendance about 150 teachers being present and Prof. B. C. Moore, county school superintendent, presided at the meeting.

Prof. Schroeder, of the State Normal university, was the first speaker. He explained the operation of similar laws in other states and called attention to the fact that the one now pending before the legislature of this state is similar in many respects to that now in use in Wisconsin. That law first went into effect six years ago, but it was revised and amended two years ago. There are now about 200 teachers in that state who are taking advantage of the provisions of the law. It is presumed that if this state passes the bill and the law becomes operative that within the same period of time there will be about 300 teachers take advantage of the law, that being the ratio in proportion to the population of the two states.

Prof. Felmley Talks.

President David Felmley, of Normal university, made an interesting address on the subject. Among other things he said that he knew of places where the teachers had grown old and incompetent to teach, but that they were retained for several years after they they had passed their days of usefulness merely because it was believed that if they were relieved of their positions they would become objects of charity. She had been unable to save enough money to support herself in her declining years. Continuing, he said: "I suppose there are some cases similar to that right in this county today. I am enough of a socialist to believe that a great many people should be pensioned following a number of years of service in the various kinds of work. I don't know that the teacher is the first of these, either. There is a tendency to recognize the real duty towards many of these people. The judges who retire from the supreme bench are pensioned on half pay, because the people don't want them to go into other business while they are acting as judges, as the office of supreme judge should be divorced from the ordinary secular interests. The same reason applies to soldiers, not only to the men who serve in the ranks, but officers and naval men as well and when they have served a sufficient length of time, they are retired on an adequate salary. This happens in times of war as well as in times of peace. There are also certain forms of public service where it is not wanted that the people engaged in those pursuits should have a divided interest. What is true of the army is true also of judges, the firemen and teachers, who are in the public service in a large sense.

"We know of a great many large industrial corporations who retire their employes and among the chief of these is the Pennsylvania Railroad company, who pensions its employes. To the young man just entering the employment of these companies these pensions are of little interest, but to the middle aged man, it is different. He is not likely to get into a strike and he has the satisfaction to know that he is secure in his old age. The International Harvester company has established a pension system for its employes and other large concerns have done likewise because of adhesion, fealty and loyalty of the employes.

"Teachers are loyal to their class and a more thorough identification of the interests of the state with those of the teachers is of much importance and tends to increase the work of the teachers. Parents, children and all would be benefitted by this sort of proposed legislation.

"It is proposed that a retirement fund be created, not to be paid out of the general fund, as in the army, but the teachers pay money into the fund. It is very much like compulsory insurance. The young teachers who start work following the passage of the law would be required to pay certain amounts to the fund each year. Some of these young teachers object to this as they do not intend to teach for twenty-five years. but when a man has his house insured he don't expect it to burn down, but it might happen to burn and if he has it insured he does not lose. It is the same way with these young teachers. They do not expect to teach twenty-five years and yet many of them probably will teach that long or longer. And it is proper for all to make contributions as a sort of insurance.

CATARRH GERMS EASILY KILLED

Only Way to Cure This Disease is to Destroy its Cause.

By a Specialist.

If you have catarrh and want to get rid of it you must kill the germs which cause catarrh. Stomach dosing, ointments, sprays, creams, douches, etc., fail because they overlook this fact. They all help by giving temporary relief but they do not reach the germ life that has found lodgement in your head, nose, throat, and could not destroy it if they did.

The best known way of destroying the dangerous germs of Catarrh and consequently ending the disease itself, is to breathe into the air passages of your nose and throat the pleasant, penetrating air of Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me). Hyomei is made from purest oil of Eucayptus combined with other powerful, healing, antiseptic and germicidal ingredients. You breathe it through a little pocket inhaler which Coover & Shreve and other leading druggists in Jacksonville and vicinity are furnishing with every complete treatment sold. Every time you inhale the sweet, fragrant air of Hyomei through this little device you are drawing into your swollen, inflamed, germ laden membranes a medicated air which will not only reduce all the swelling and inflamation and open your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages, but will absolutely and positively destroy every trace of Catarrh germ life it reaches. Druggists are so sure of the blessed, lasting relief that Hyomei brings to catarrh sufferers that they sell it invariably on the positive guarantee that money paid will be refunded if successful results are not secured from its use. Get a Hyomei outfit from your druggist today and begin at once to drive this dangerous and disgusting disease from your system for ever.

TRY WOMAN FOR MURDER.

Bridgeport, Conn., Feb. 23.—Mrs. Helen Blondel Angle, a pretty divorcee of Stamford, will be placed on trial today, charged with the murder of Waldo R. Ballou, a wealthy manufacturer of Stamford, and formerly a member of the Common Council of that city. The mysterious circumstances of the death of Ballou last June, when he was found fatally injured on the sidewalk in front of Mrs. Angle's apartments, led to the accusation against her, and she was indicted for manslaughter. A trail of blood leading up the stairs to her apartment is the evidence so far known to the public against the pretty divorcee.

Mrs. Angle was hysterical after the mysterious death of Ballou, who was an admirer. She has stoutly denied connection with the death of Ballou, declaring that he was the best friend she had. She declared that Ballou fell, and that she went to his assistance in bare feet. She did not deny that the footprints leading to her apartment were hers, but said she had returned hysterical to her rooms when she saw the bleeding friend lying on the sidewalk.

Mrs. Angle has recovered from her illness, and her attorneys say she is able to undergo the ordeal of trial.

TRY BROKERS FOR ACCEPTING STOLEN FUNDS

San Francisco, Calif., Feb. 23.—A remarkable case, the first of its kind in the federal courts,, will be tried here today, when J. C. Wilson, B. A. Wilbrandt and Foster E. Burke will be tried for criminal conspiracy to defraud a United States depository. The three men were brokers, and their firm was one of the largest on the Pacific Coast. They are charged with knowing that Charles F. Baker, cashier of the Crocker National Bank, now an inmate of San Quentin Penitentiary, who was one of their customers under an assumed name, was plunging with funds not his own. It is charged that a special account was kept under a fictitious name, and that the young cashier was encouraged to plunge with funds of the bank. "Big Bill" Keliher, one of the fake faro kings of Boston and New York, is now doing 18 years for complicity with George W. Coleman of the Cambridge, Mass., City Bank, Keliher having been proven to know that the funds gambled away and split up by the gang came from Coleman's bank.

The present case is the first in which brokers have been tried on these charges.

E. G. HARRIS DIED AT HOSPITAL IN KANSAS CITY

Former Resident of Jacksonville Passed Away Following Surgical Operation—Burial in Kentucky.

John R. Loar received a letter yesterday from Mrs. Blanche H. Hunt of Olathe, Kans., telling of the death of her step-father, E. G. Harris, which occurred at Kansas City, Sunday afternoon at 5.45. Mr. Harris had been at the Swedish hospital in Kansas City for sometime, where he underwent a severe surgical operation. His condition was such that he did not survive the shock and death came at the hour mentioned. The remains have been taken to Lawrenceburg, Ky., where Mr. Harris will be laid to rest in a cemetery near his boyhood home.

Mr. Harris was for nearly forty years a resident of Jacksonville and it was only about ten years ago that, subsequent to his marriage to Mrs. E. J. Buxton, he moved to Olathe, Kans. where he built a handsome home. Mr. Harris was born May 29, 1839, in VanBuren, Anderson county, Ky. During the war he served in the Confederate army and after the close of the great conflict became a resident of Jacksonville. The family home was on South Main street near Morton avenue and there were five children in the family, all of whom survive. They are Dr. Neville Harris, now living in Australia; Mrs. Alva Hills, of Omaha; Mrs. Catherine Parker of Garden City, N. Y.; Mrs. Lucille Orton of Macon, Ill., and Miss Eula Harris, who resided with her father in Olathe.

Mr. Harris was first married in Kentucky before he became a resident of Jacksonville, and his wife died here in 1898. Several years later he was married to Mrs. E. J. Buxton of this city, who survives him, as do her five children. Mr. Harris was prominent in the business life of Jacksonville for a great many years, and was also an active member of Central Christian church. J. O. Priest, as well as Mr. Loar and a number of other Jacksonville people, received information of Mr. Harris' untimely death.

Mrs. Harris and Miss Eula Harris started from Kansas City to Lawrenceburg with the remains and at St. Louis were joined by other relatives. Funeral services were held at Lawrenceburg yesterday.

OHIO COW PRODUCES TWELVE TONS OF MILK IN A YEAR

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Feb. 23—Tests completed today by the dairy department of the Ohio State University establish a new world's record in milk production, according to figures made public at the University tonight. The new queen of the dairy world is Murne Cowan, a five year old Guernsey cow, who during the last year produced twelve tons of milk.

According to the University figures the cow's milk averaged five percent in butter fat. During the year she produced 1,096 pounds of butter fat which churns into 1,400 pounds of butter. Murne Cowan's home is a farm near Barberton, Ohio.

MR. BREWER A CANDIDATE.

Mr. Brewer's name appears in the notice this morning in the proper place, and he has not the slightest intention of quitting the race.

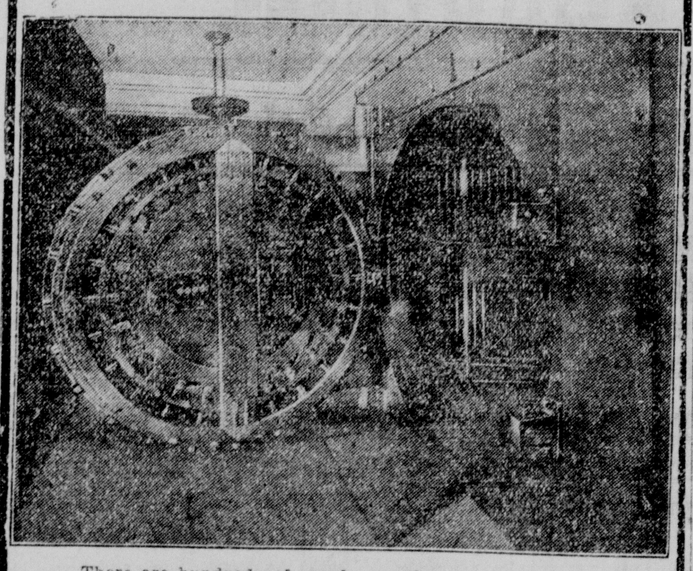
SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

$3.00 PER YEAR

Less than One Cent a Day.



There are hundreds of people in this vicinity who have become accustomed to using a tin box in which to keep their valuables, who by using one of our SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES will find they are safer, strictly private and more satisfactory in every way.

It requires two keys to unlock the box. The customer has one and the Bank the other, which is the master key. If you should loose your key, and some one else should find it, it would do them no good, because it would require the master key, which we hold before the box could be opened.

There is no better or stronger vault in the United States, and the rate we pay on burglary insurance, which we carry, is the lowest in the country.

Come in and let our vault clerk, Mr. Ewen I. Whitlock, explain.

C. W. B. M. Circle In Washington Event.

Division "B" of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions gave a Washington entertainment last evening in the parlors of the church, appearing in a well-planned program of features, literary and musical. Mrs. T. S. Martin, chairman of the circle, and Miss Eleanor Thompson were in charge. Appropriate refreshments were served by the ladies at the program's close.

Miss Beatrice Dye gave an instrumental solo, "Annie Laurie," after which appeared a violin trio, Byron Carpenter, Earl Briscoe and Howard Dunlap, in a minute from Beethoven. "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," by Miss Marie Finney was universally pleasing as was the duet by Miss Dye and Miss Lydia Hunt, "Coming Thro' the Rye." Miss Finney sang the "The Vacant Chair" and a rendition of "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean," by Miss Fern Haigh en costume, completed the program. The most noteworthy feature of the entertainment perhaps was the tableau, entitled "The Colonist's Choice," in which the characters were represented as follows: The colonist, Floyd Williamson; magician, Earl Johnston, Puritan maiden, Miss Lucille Sperry; Indian maiden, Miss Lois Hayden; Spanish girl, Miss Florence Rice; Italian girl, Miss Helen Harney; Greek girl, Martha Simpson; the "Colonist's choice," Miss Helen Mathis and the nun, Miss Edith Carlson.

DRAMATIC CLUB GIVES FIRST LADY OF THE LAND

The Dramatic club of the Illinois Woman's college made its first public appearance Monday evening when in honor of the birthday of Washington, it presented Nirdlinger's "First Lady of the Land." The play was given under the direction of Miss Louise Glecker, the head of the Expression Department. The cast was especially well chosen and responded in a very gratifying way to time and energy expended by Miss Gleckler in making the play the decided success that it was.

Old fashioned furniture, old fashioned styles in hair dressing, in costumes and in manners made a most attractive background, for bringing out the work of te individual actors.

Corrine Hughes, a junior in the college, as the demure and coquettish Dolly Todd, took a part that suited her admirably. Feril Hess, who has appeared in a number of plays given at the college in the last two or three years did what is probably her best work so far in the difficult role of Aaron Burr. In Bertha Weber, who took the part of Madison, a strong third was found for the other of the three most important characters. Her acting was to an unusual degree sincere and natural. Mary Harrison and Alma Harmel were for their first appearance on the stage watched with interest by the audience. Miss Harrison was able to arouse sympathy in her audience from the start as she worried over the approaching arrival of Lady Mary. Miss Harmel's protrayal of Lady Mary was full of clever side plays. The third scene gave a splendid opportunity not only for clever costuming but clever bits of acting, as the various ministers from foreign countries to the United States wrangled over the question of precedence to the dining room. The acting too, of Wilma Miller, Alice Tombaugh, Irene Crum, Helen McGree and Katherine Long deserves special notice.

The cast of characters follows:

Sir Anthony Merry, British Minister—Mary Harrison.

Jennings, a servant—Helen McGhee.

Rohlan Pinkney, President's Secretary—Vilma Miller.

Sally McKean, afterwards Marchioness D'Yrugo—Irene Crum.

Dolly Todd—Corinne Hughes.

Clotilda, a maid—Katherine Long.

Sophia Sparkle, afterwards Madam Pichon—Mildred Spencer.

Mrs. Sparkle, the gendarmine of the period—Alice Tombaugh.

Aaron Burr—Feril Hess.

James Madison—Bertha Weber.

Ena Ferrar, Lady Merry's sister—Ima Berryman.

Lady Mary, wife of British Minister—Alma Harmel.

Hair Dresser—Ethel Birkes.

Marquis D'Yrugo, Spanish Minister—Alma Weber.

Louis Andre Pichon, Charge d'Affairs—Esther Fowler.

DeVaux, Major Domo at White House—Elaine Buhrman.

Mynhorr VanBerkle, Minister from Netherlands—Gertrude Wilson.

Vrow VanBerkle—Phyllis Wilkinson.

Minister from Turkey—Vivian Newman.

Minister from Russia—Mary Louise Powell.

The Cook—Marie Towle.

"CHRIST'S SECOND COMING" THEME AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH REVIVAL

Pastor Stephens Gives Effective Address Comparing Coming of the Master to the Lightning—"The Spoiled Name" This Evening.

"Everybody's night" at First Baptist church proved a gratifying success, Pastor Stephens addressing a well-filled house on "Christ's Second Coming—The Lightning Flash." At the beginning of the service eight disciples were baptized. Miss Duncan sang "There's a Great Day Coming" in her usual commendable manner. "Junior Union Night" this evening will be featured by a whistling chorus by Junior Union members and a special invitataion is extended to all young people. The pastor will speak on the theme, "A Spoiled Name."

The pastor took as his text: Matthew 24:27, "For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be." The Norsemen thought thunder was the rumbling of the wheels of the chariot of their great God Thor, and that lightning was the cleaving of the path for the chariot by the hammer of "Mjolner."

"We know today that lightning is the electric flash from one electric cloud to another, and that thunder is the report of the flash which travels at the rate of a mile in five seconds. The "Lightning Flash" is the most perfect metaphor Christ could use of His second coming. The analogy can be seen in four regards as follows:

"1. Lightning is swift in its coming, so is Christ's return to be swift. Not spreading from 1874 until the manifestation, as some tell us.

"In the life of Henry Irving by Mrs. Oliphant a reference is made to the sermon of a Scotch minister preached in Perth. A cloud settled on the church; the darkness could almost be felt; he was preaching on Christ's return. Suddenly a lightning flash swept through the building. In great and increased solemnity the minister paused and gave the words of my text tonight, 'As the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; even so shall the coming of the Son of man be.'

"II. It is superb in its character. This is true whether we think of fork lightning with its grandeur, or sheet lightning with its glory, or ball lightning with its mystery, and in Titus 2:13 the apostle Paul speaks of the 'Glorious appearing of the great God, our Saviour.' Dr. Hubert Brooks tells of a man who weakened in the night by the burning of a barracks, exclaimed 'Hoorah' here is the Lord.' He was waiting for the glory.

"III. It is beneficent in its consequences. The lightning storm discharges the rain from the clouds upon the earth. It also purifies the atmosphere. When Christ comes, the 'latter rain' of the Holy spirit will be outpoured, resulting in 'a nation being born in a day'—the nation of Israel. It will also result in the purification of the heavens in the expulsion to the abyss of 'Satan and his host, now in heavenly places.'

"What wonderful blessings will follow. Sight to the sightless; hearing to the deaf; speech to the dumb; health to the sick; and restoration to the 'groaning creation.'

"IV. It is also destructive in its course. Darwin in his 'Voyage of the Beagle' tells about the storm at Buneos Ayres in which 37 places were struck with lightning, and 19 killed. In second Thessalonians 1:7 to 9 we read, 'The Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with flaming fire, taking vengence on them that know not God and obey not the gospel, who shall be punished with everlasting destruction.'

"Are you ready? Count Von Moltke was weakened one night and informed that the Prussians and French had declared war. 'You will find plans for the campaign in such and such a pigeon-hole' he said and turned over to sleep again. He was ready, are you?"

REV. ADOLPH J. SCHILESSER NAMED U. S. CHAPLAIN

Pres. Wilson's Recommendation Confirmed—Mrs. Schliesser Formerly Miss Alice Brune of This City.

A recent issue of the New Orleans Herald has a picture and a story of Rev. Adolph J. Schliesser, who married Miss Alice Brune of this city and who has recently been appointed a chaplain in the United States Army with the rank of First Lieutenant. He will be stationed at Douglas, Arizona, and will take up his work there the 20th of March.

The paper in speaking of his preferment says: "A telegram received few days ago from Senator Joseph A. Ransdall confirms the appointment by senate of President Wilson's recommendation of Rev. Adolph J. Schliesser, pastor of Our Evangelical Lutheran church, to become a chaplain in the United States Army with rank of first lieutenant.

"The appointment of Mr. Schliesser to this exalted position is due in a great measure to the fact that he was a student for the ministry at the time he served in the First Missouri infantry in the war with Spain in 1898. He also has the distinction of being the first Lutheran preacher of the Missouri Synod to the chaplaincy of the U. S. Army.

"During the Spanish-American war he enlisted with the First Missouri Infantry and after being mustered out he went to the Theological seminary of the Evangelical Lutheran church of Springeld, Ill. After graduation he went to Kingsbury, Texas. Since 1911 he has been head of the Lutheran church of New Orleans. During his ministry there the church has increased thirty-five percent in membership and seventy-eight per cent of the church debt has been paid."
